

(4/4) – Suavemente

"Músicas Para Crianças", pág. 08

Letra: Reid N Nibley n. 1923

Música: Reid N Nibley

The left staff of musical notation consists of 12 systems, each with a five-line staff. The music is written in a simplified notation style using black dots for notes and stems. The melody begins on a high note and descends in a series of steps, with some intervals of two lines. The notation is spread across the staff, with notes often placed on the middle lines. The piece concludes with a final note on the bottom line of the final system.

The right staff of musical notation consists of 12 systems, each with a five-line staff. The music is written in a simplified notation style using black dots for notes and stems. The melody begins on a high note and descends in a series of steps, with some intervals of two lines. The notation is spread across the staff, with notes often placed on the middle lines. The piece concludes with a final note on the bottom line of the final system.

(continuação)

A musical staff for the left hand, consisting of 12 systems of a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The first system contains a melody line with a starting square on the treble clef and several notes. The second system continues the melody. The third system contains a bass line with notes. The remaining systems are empty.

A musical staff for the right hand, consisting of 12 systems of a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The first system contains a melody line with a starting square on the treble clef and several notes. The second system continues the melody. The third system contains notes. The remaining systems are empty.