The right side of the page contains an empty grand staff with 12 systems, identical in structure to the left staff. It is provided for the accompaniment or a second part of the piece.
