Música: Joseph Ballantyne, 1868 – 1944

The left staff of musical notation consists of 15 horizontal lines. It features a series of vertical grey bars representing a 3/4 time signature. Black dots are placed on the lines to indicate the pitch and timing of the notes. The melody begins on the second line from the bottom and moves generally upwards, with some descending passages. A small black square is positioned above the top line at the beginning of the staff.
