The left staff of musical notation consists of 12 systems, each with a five-line staff. The music is written in a simplified notation style using black dots for notes and stems. The notes are placed on the lines and spaces of the staff. The first system has a small square symbol above the staff. The notation is spread across the staff, with some notes appearing on the top line and others on the bottom line. The right side of the staff has several dots, likely indicating the end of a phrase or a measure.
