The left page of the musical score consists of 12 staves. The first five staves contain musical notation, including a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a 3/4 time signature. The notation includes various note values (quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes), rests, and dynamic markings. The remaining seven staves are empty, providing space for additional parts or practice.

The right page of the musical score consists of 12 empty staves, providing space for additional parts or practice.
