

(2/2)

Letra: Isaac Watts, 1707

Música: Canto gregoriano

The left staff of musical notation consists of 12 systems, each with a five-line staff. The notes are represented by black dots on the lines and spaces. A square neume symbol is positioned above the first staff. The notation is organized into four groups of three systems each, with a vertical line separating the first and second groups. The notes are distributed across the staves, with some systems containing multiple notes on the same line or space.

The right staff of musical notation consists of 12 systems, each with a five-line staff. The notes are represented by black dots on the lines and spaces. A square neume symbol is positioned above the first staff. The notation is organized into four groups of three systems each, with a vertical line separating the first and second groups. The notes are distributed across the staves, with some systems containing multiple notes on the same line or space.