216 – We Are Sowing

Letra: Anon., Pure Diamonds, Cleveland, 1872

Música: Henry A. Tuckett, 1852–1918

The left staff of the musical score consists of 15 horizontal staves. The music is written in a rhythmic notation where vertical lines represent the beat grid and black dots represent notes. The notes are placed at various vertical positions on the staves, indicating pitch and timing. The melody is primarily composed of quarter and eighth notes, with some rests. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The score begins with a small square symbol on the top staff, indicating the start of the piece.

The right staff of the musical score consists of 15 horizontal staves. The notation is identical to the left staff, featuring a rhythmic grid with black dots representing notes. The melody continues across these staves, maintaining the same rhythmic and pitch patterns as the left staff. The score begins with a small square symbol on the top staff, indicating the start of the piece.
