The left staff is a musical score on a grid. It consists of 15 horizontal staves. The grid has vertical lines every 2 units and horizontal lines every 4 units. Black dots are scattered across the grid, representing musical notes. The notes are primarily concentrated in the upper half of the grid, with some extending into the lower half. The dots are arranged in a way that suggests a melodic line across the staves.

The right staff is a musical score on a grid, similar to the left staff. It consists of 15 horizontal staves. The grid has vertical lines every 2 units and horizontal lines every 4 units.
