The left page of the musical score consists of 15 staves. The first staff is a treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 3/4 time signature. The music is written in a single melodic line. The score is divided into two systems of seven staves each. The first system covers measures 1 through 14, and the second system covers measures 15 through 28. The music features a steady eighth-note rhythm with occasional quarter notes and rests. The melody is simple and repetitive, characteristic of a hymn tune.

The right page of the musical score consists of 15 staves. The first staff is a treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 3/4 time signature. The music is written in a single melodic line. The score is divided into two systems of seven staves each. The first system covers measures 29 through 36, and the second system covers measures 37 through 50. The music continues the melody from the left page, maintaining the same rhythmic and melodic patterns. The score concludes with a final cadence in the 50th measure.
